Pumpkin Patch Owner to Make Donation

Your Coverage is Invited *****

This Saturday from 1 to 2 p.m., Leon Cumpton, owner of Papa's Pumpkin Patch located at 4610 Forest Park Road in Sedalia, MO, has called upon Darth Vader and the Stormtroopers, from the 70th Explorers Garrison, to join him in presenting the Boys & Girls Clubs of West Central Missouri with a $200 donation.

Cumpton will be making a $100 donation to the Boys & Girls Clubs of West Central Missouri. An additional donation of $100 will also be made by Cumpton on behalf of the 70th Explorers Garrison for their volunteerism at this year's Papa's Pumpkin Patch event.

"I think the Boys & Girls Club has a great thing going and I think the kids have a good time," said Cumpton. "It's a good cause."

About Papa's Pumpkin Patch:

Cumpton operates Papa's Pumpkin Patch on Friday, Saturday and Sunday from September 24 through October 30. Attractions include: a hayride, games, puppet show, tire swing, corn maze, tricycle track and a pumpkin slingshot. Admission is $5 for individuals 2 through 54 years old. Seniors and infants get in free. Pumpkins, gourds, straw, corn stalks, mums, painted birdhouse gourds and antiques are also available for sale.

About 70th Explorers Garrison:

According to the 70th Explorers Garrison website, www.70thexplorers.com, they are “the world’s definitive Imperial costuming organization featuring the ‘bad guys’ from the Star Wars Universe” and their mission is to help, “local communities through fundraising, charity and promotional events.”

About the Boys & Girls Clubs of West Central Missouri

Realizing Potential: Our Children, Our Community, Our Future

For over 50 years the Boys & Girls Clubs of West Central Missouri (www.bgckids.com) as provided hope and opportunity to local communities by inspiring all youth to BE GREAT. The Club started in 1960 when a group of local optimists saw the need for positive youth programming and today the Club continues to positively impact lives by helping youth reach their full potential as productive and caring citizens. The Boys & Girls Clubs of West Central Missouri serves youth from 6 to 18 years of age by providing guidance-oriented character development programs conducted by trained, professional staff. Key programs emphasize leadership development; education and career exploration; community service; technology training; financial literacy; health and life skills; the arts; sports, fitness and recreation and family outreach. The Club currently serves more than 1,760 members in 21 site programs, serving 6 communities and 3 counties in west central Missouri.
